Matassa Names Taleta Wesley as Ascension Parish Human Resources Director

Ascension Parish President Kenny Matassa is pleased to announce the hiring of Taleta Wesley as Ascension Parish Government's Human Resources Director.

Ms. Wesley holds a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Grambling University, a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Southern University, and a Law Degree from Southern University Law Center. She is also certified in Red Cross Shelter Management, National Incident Management System (NIMS), and Professional Human Resources (PHR).

"Our competitive search for a Human Resources Director produced great candidates," said Matassa. "After interviews and consultation, it was clear to me that Taleta would be ideal for the position. I am very happy to have her on board."

Combined with her education and certification credentials, Ms. Wesley has nearly a decade of experience as a human resources professional in the public and private sector.

In addition to her regular duties as HR Director, Ms. Wesley will be tasked with implementing all personnel recommendations from the recently completed salary and organizational survey.
